June 2nd, 2020 - 1 don mitchell s cultural geography is more than just an introduction to that burgeoning field it is a critical introduction as the author claims from the first page to the last indeed this is a book that is built from a very clear and strong position on cultural geography that of a marxist geographer for whom culture consists of relationships that more often than not are full of tension leading to what the author calls culture wars'
