the body and the voice in la muette de portici deepdyve april 24th, 2020 - this article explores changing attitudes toward actors bodies at the paris opera through the performance history of d f e auber s opera la muette de portici from 1828 to 1879 because a mime performed the role of fenella and the chorus played an active role in the mise en scene the opera placed unusual emphasis on the physical over this period however emphasis shifted from appreciation
